

What is SWCD?

Local unit of government with 5 locally elected supervisors which...

Provides local leadership and direction for putting conservation on the land,

Coordinates the activities of the Federal, State and Local agencies to provide conservation services and monies,

Develops conservation plans, educational programs, technical information and demonstrations with the expertise of Olmsted County staff, and

Works with farmers, other individuals, cities, townships and counties to plan and install conservation measures.
